The Lucky Lottery Office!

ESTABLISHED UPWARDS OF THIRTY YEARS,

At No. 11, HOLBORN,

Where TICKETS and SHARES of TICKETS are now selling by

J. BRANSCOMB,

BY WHOM THE FIRST

30,000 POUND PRIZE,

EVER SOLD, No 24,206, WAS SHARED,

In One Half, One Fourth, One Eighth, and Two Sixteenths;

AND, IN THE SAME YEAR,

No. 34,512, entitled to £.20,000.

Was sold in One Half, One Quarter, One Eighth, and Two Sixteenths.

Likewise the FIRST BLANK ever entitled to

TWENTY THOUSAND POUNDS, No. 37,247,

Was sold in One Fourth, Three Eighths, and Six Sixteenths, in the Lottery for 1797; and in the State-Lottery drawn February, 1796.

No. 30,342, entitled to £.20,000,

Was divided as follows; viz. One Half Share to a Club in the Strand, who received 9,812l. 10s.; One Fourth Share to a Club in Orchard-Street, Westminster, who received 4,906l. 5s.; One Eighth Share and Two Sixteenths to sundry other Persons, who received 5000l.—And by whom likewise the original Plan for STAMPING the Shares, &c. was first made known to the Right Honourable the Lords of the Treasury, which Parliament soon adopted, and Time has proved its Utility, as the Profit annually to the Public on Lotteries since that Time is more than doubled.

And in the Second Irish Lottery for 1798, the Ticket No. 24,821, entitled to

TWO THOUSAND POUNDS,

was sold to a Club of Gentlemen's Servants near Bedford-Square, being divided into Sixteen equal Parts.—One of the fortunate Adventurers had a Sixteenth of a 20,000l. Prize from the above Office the Year before.

Likewise, in the same Lottery, No. 28,878, entitled to

was sold and registered to a Club consisting of 21 labouring Men.

And in the last English Lottery,

No. 11,780, entitled to £.20,000,

Being the only one shared, was sold in Two Quarters and Eight Sixteenths.

Likewise in the same Lottery,

No. 24,215, entitled to ONE THOUSAND POUNDS,

Was sold in One Half, One Quarter, One Eighth, and Two Sixteenths.

And, in former Lotteries, a very great Proportion of all the capital Prizes has been sold, shared, and registered, at the above Office.

 Schemes, and every Particular of the Present Lottery, will be advertised in all the London and Country Papers, or may be had of

J. Branscomb, No. 11, Holborn; or of Mr. Sievwright, Edinburgh;

Likewise of all the Stage or Mail Coachmen, &c. by whom Orders will be received and executed the same as if transmitted by Post, without the least additional Expence.
